

Winter Theater Tea

"FULL OF WIT & CLEVER JOKES."
-Lauren Gamache (The Daily Titan)

Join us on Sunday, January 28, for the Martin Luther presentation of Is He Dead?, by Mark Twain and adapted by David Ives. Jean-Francois Millet, a young painter of genius, is in love with Marie Leroux but in debt to a villainous picture-dealer, Bastien Andre. Andre forecloses on Millet, threatening debtor's prison unless Marie marries him. Millet realizes that the only way he can pay his debts and keep Marie from marrying Andre is to die, as it is only dead painters who achieve fame and fortune. Millet fakes his death and prospers, all while passing himself off as his own sister, the Widow Tillou. Now a rich "widow," he must find a way to get out of a dress, return to life, and marry Marie.

*Join us for our fourth Theater Tea in Martin Luther's WFAC.
The menu for the Tea includes a variety of desserts and drinks.*

Seating begins at 1:30 p.m., with a start time of 2:00 p.m.

Please avoid phone orders and use this order form or order by email. Payment must accompany your order. No tickets will be given—your order reserves you a seat at a table! Please identify people you wish to sit with under the "comments" section. Maximum number at a table is 4.

Reservations are due Monday, January 22nd

Advanced tickets required—no walk-ins!
